

Intercultural Studies

Barbara Lingo - Program Chair

“The purpose of the Intercultural Studies program is to equip effective personnel to live and work among people of other cultures.”

Upon completion of this program, students should be able to:

Adjustment to a particular culture that will enable effective service while living and working in other cultures.

Increase understanding of linguistic and cultural diversity and to relate more significantly to people with a different linguistic and cultural background.

Be encouraged to analyze and understand intercultural problems and develop Christian perspectives toward these problems.
